International Summer School of Heritage Management, Interpretation and Education

When? 1\textsuperscript{st} – 14\textsuperscript{th} June 2014

Where? In the UNESCO town of Telč, Czech Republic

Whom for? BA, MA and PhD students from Charles University, Prague (CZ), University of Primorska, Koper (SLO), Matej Bel University, Banská Bystrica (SK)

Especially for students of history, art studies, Czech and foreign languages, philosophy and social sciences, educational sciences

Why? What will you have a chance to study?

History and archaeology

- To become familiar with concepts used in discussing international cultural heritage; the ‘milestones’ of the history of heritage and its protection worldwide; the diversity of philosophical, ethical, educational and practical approaches to cultural heritage worldwide and (post)modern developments in heritage sector.

Travel, tourism and leisure

- To discuss key issues of authenticity and stage experience relating to management, interpretation and marketization of heritage as well as issues of cultural tourism and safeguarding of intangible cultural heritage along with challenges facing cultural heritage today as a consequence of boom of new media.

Teacher training

- To review the role of education for sustainability of values of heritage as well as both European concept and case studies of education about/through/for heritage.
How? What teaching methods will be used?

- Interactive lectures
- Workshops (learning by doing approach, experiential learning)
- Critical reviews of study visits and field trips for example to Telč Castle, Brno Galleries, Kroměříž UNESCO Chateau and Historical Gardens or Červená Řečice Castle
- Interdisciplinary seminars and debates
- Moodle learning database

What are the benefits of your participation?

- Meeting students and teachers from 3 Central European Universities
- Meeting heritage professionals from Czech National Heritage Institute
- Visiting interesting heritage sites and cultural landscape of outstanding beauty
- Enjoying your learning in English
- 6 ECTS credits
- Financial support from European Union (LLL – Intensive Erasmus Programme)

What should you do if you want to participate?

- Write a motivation letter in English.
- Explain how you will benefit from the participation personally and professionally.
- Send the letter to the Department of History and History Didactics (code: HEMAINE) until 21st February 2014.
- Success at the interview in March 2014.

Contact persons:

- Prof. Kateřina Charvátová (katerina.charvatova@pedf.cuni.cz)
- Hana Havlůjová (hana.havlujova@pedf.cuni.cz)