Europaeum Seminar for PhD students

'The Cost of Neglecting International History'

SIR ADAM ROBERTS
President of British Academy, Department of Politics and International Relations, Oxford University

Time: Friday September 27
10:30 – 12:00

Place: DEPARTMENT OF W EUROPEAN STUDIES
Faculty of Social Sciences
Charles University Prague
Rytířská 31, Praha 1
Room 201
(Take your student’s ID)

Applications to be sent to zes@fsv.cuni.cz and rovna@fsv.cuni.cz before September 10

See his past Europaeum Lecture on International Law and the Use of Military Force @ http://www.europaeum.org/europaeum/?q=node/709

For more information about Sir Adam Roberts please visit # http://www.europaeum.org/europaeum/?q=node/710

On Thursday 26th of September, Sir Adam Roberts will be presenting a lecture on Civil Resistance and Power Politics: From Prague to the Arab Spring, which is a part of the new Vaclav Havel Europaeum MA Programme linking the three leading universities, University of Leiden, Paris 1 Pantheon-Sorbonne and Charles University.